

High School Ministries Coordinator

Come join our faith family at Fox Chapel Presbyterian Church! We are seeking a High School Ministries Coordinator, who shall lift up, develop, and carry out an action plan for ministry based on our church's vision for the home as well as the church as significant agencies for faith formation. The ministry is to be a comprehensive and expanding discipleship and outreach ministry for secondary school students, recent high school graduates, and families of this congregation and the surrounding community, with a focus on senior high students. It is a goal of this ministry to help young people gain a sense of Christian identity that centers on God and His church, while developing a mature, working faith in Jesus Christ. The High School Ministries Coordinator shall also assist and participate in the Contemporary Worship Service. The High School Ministries Coordinator is expected to provide spiritual leadership and demonstrate personal faith in Jesus Christ in relationships with staff, students, church members, and colleagues. He or she must have a joyful enthusiasm for and sincere empathy with young people, enjoying their company and their unique characteristics. Salary commensurate with experience. Resumes can be e-mailed to the High School Ministries Coordinator Search Committee at admin@fcpc.us, or sent by snail mail to that committee care of Fox Chapel Presbyterian Church, 384 Fox Chapel Road, Pittsburgh, PA 15238.
